Q.C.C '11

A.A Liberal Arts

A creative, hard worker who loves making things from scratch, looking to expand and improve on my passions in life. I'm a team player with the ability to play many roles, taking on any challenge head on. I am all about setting a plan before jumping into anything to minimize the errors, but always willing to take criticism and starting over if I need to. I seek to learn something new each day and continually grow, never staying stagnant.
