Q.C.C '11

A.A Liberal Arts

A creative, hard worker who loves making things from scratch. I'm a team player with the ability to play many roles, taking any challenge head on. I am an organized planner, who is willing to take criticism and start over when necessary. I seek to learn something new each day and continuously grow.

PROJECTS

GabeLeeGolf (HTML, CSS, WordPress)

Professional Golfer blog for business use

- All pages use HTML to display text and photos.
- Plugins to help with payment and making reservations for lessons.

Everyday PokéDex (React.js, Node.js)

A PokeDex that displays data from making API calls from pokeapi.co

- Built with React.js & Node.js and simple CSS.
- Update data on the screen when different Pokemon are selected.

Retrospektor (Rails, PSQL)

Peer review of peer review web page.

- Pulls tweets, yelp reviews and other reviews from APIs which you can make reviews on.

Snake (JavaScript, jQuery)

Recreation of classic game

- Uses jQuery to manipulate the DOM and randomize targets on the page.
